Preliminary Title

BFA Disciplinary Code (BDC)

With specific reference to art. 59 par. 3 of the BFA Statutes, the Executive Board of the Barbados Football Association (BFA) enforces the following code.

1. Object

This code describes infringements of the rules in the BFA regulations, determines the sanctions incurred, regulates the organisation and function of the bodies responsible for taking decisions and the procedures to be followed before these bodies.

2. Scope of application: substantive law

This code applies to every match and competition organised by BFA. Beyond this scope, it also applies if a match official is harmed and, more generally, if the statutory objectives of the BFA are breached, especially with regard to forgery, corruption and doping. It also applies to any breach of BFA regulations that does not fall under the jurisdiction of any other body.

3. Scope of application: natural and legal persons

The following are subject to this code:

- a) members of associations, in particular the clubs;
- b) officials;
- c) players;
- d) match officials;
- e) licensed match and players' agents;
- f) anyone with an authorisation from the BFA, in particular with regard to a match, competition or other event organised by BFA;
- g) spectators.

4. Scope of application: time

This code applies to facts that have arisen after it has come into force. It also applies to previous facts if it is equally favourable or more favourable for the perpetrator of the facts and if the judicial bodies of the BFA are deciding on these facts after the code has come into force. By contrast, rules governing procedure apply immediately upon the coming into force of this code.

5. Definitions

1. Post-match: the time between the final whistle from the referee and the teams' departure from the confines of the stadium.
2. Pre-match: the time between the teams' arrival in the confines of the stadium and the whistle for kick-off from the referee.

Preliminary Title

3. International match: a match between two teams belonging to different clubs (two clubs, one club and one representative team or two representative teams).
4. Friendly match: a match organised by a football organisation, club or other person between teams chosen for the occasion and possibly belonging to different spheres of operation; the score has an effect only on the match or tournament in question and, in the case of representative teams, on the BFA rankings.
5. Official match: a match organised under the auspices of a football organisation for all of the teams or clubs in its sphere of operation; the score has an effect on the rights of participation in other competitions unless the regulations in question stipulate otherwise.
6. Officials: anyone, with the exception of players, performing an activity connected with football at an association or club, regardless of his title, the type of activity (administrative, sporting or any other) and the duration of the activity; in particular, managers, coaches and support staff are officials.
7. Match official: the referee, assistant referees, fourth official, match commissioner, referee inspector, the person in charge of safety, and any other persons appointed by FIFA or the BFA to assume responsibility in connection with a match.
8. FIFA regulations: the statutes, regulations, directives and circulars of FIFA as well as the Laws of the Game issued by the International Football Association Board.
9. BFA regulations: the statutes, regulations, directives and circulars of the BFA as well as the Laws of the Game issued by Barbados Football Association.
10. Stadium: Venue used to play a match or game.

6. Gender and number

Terms referring to natural persons are applicable to both genders. Any term in the singular applies to the plural and vice-versa.

Section 1. Conditions for sanctions

7. Culpability

1. Unless otherwise specified, infringements are punishable regardless of whether they have been committed deliberately or negligently.
2. Exceptionally, a match may have to be played without spectators or on neutral territory, or a certain stadium may be banned purely for safety reasons, without an infringement having been committed.

8. Acts amounting to attempt

1. Acts amounting to attempt are also punishable.
2. In the case of acts amounting to attempt, the body may reduce the sanction envisaged for the actual infringement accordingly. It will determine the extent of the mitigation as it sees fit; it shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (cf. art. 15 par. 2).

9. Involvement

1. Anyone who intentionally takes part in committing an infringement, either as instigator or accomplice, is also punishable.
2. The body will take account of the degree of guilt of the party involved and may reduce the sanction accordingly. It shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (art. 15 par. 2).

Section 2. Disciplinary measures

10. Sanctions common to natural and legal persons

Both natural and legal persons are punishable by the following sanctions:

- a) warning;
- b) reprimand;
- c) fine;
- d) return of awards.

11. Sanctions applicable to natural persons

The following sanctions are applicable only to natural persons:

- a) caution;
- b) expulsion;
- c) match- suspension;
- d) ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' bench;
- e) ban from entering a stadium;
- f) ban on taking part in any football-related activity.

12. Sanctions applicable to legal persons

The following sanctions are applicable only to legal persons:

- a) transfer ban;
- b) playing a match without spectators;
- c) playing a match on neutral territory;
- d) ban on playing in a particular stadium;
- e) annulment of the result of a match;
- f) expulsion;
- g) forfeit;
- h) deduction of points;
- i) relegation to a lower division.

13. Warning

A warning is a reminder of the substance of a disciplinary rule allied with the threat of a sanction in the event of a further infringement.

14. Reprimand

A reprimand is an official written pronouncement of disapproval sent to the perpetrator of an infringement.

15. Fine

1. A fine is issued in Barbados dollars (BDS). It shall be paid in the same currency.
2. The fine shall not be less than BDS $200.00, or in the case of a competition subject to an age limit not less than BDS $100.00, and not more than BDS $1,000.00.
3. The body that imposes the fine decides the terms and time limits for payment.
4. Members/clubs are jointly liable for fines imposed on representative team players and officials. The fact that a natural person has left a club or association does not cancel out joint liability.

16. Return of awards

The person required to return an award shall return the benefits received, in particular sums of money and symbolic objects (medal, trophy etc.).

17. Caution

1. A caution (yellow card) is a warning from the referee to a player during a match to sanction unsporting behaviour of a less serious nature (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game).
2. Two cautions received during the same match incur an expulsion (indirect red card) and, consequently, automatic suspension from the next match (cf. art. 18 par. 4). The two cautions that incurred the red card are rescinded.

First Title. Substantive Law - Chapter I General Part

3. If a player receives a caution in four separate matches of the same BFA competition, he is automatically suspended from the next match in that competition. The Disciplinary Committee may exceptionally depart from or amend this rule before the start of a particular competition. Any such decision reached by the Disciplinary Committee is final.
4. If an abandoned match is to be replayed, any caution issued during that match shall be annulled. If the match is not to be replayed, the cautions received by the team responsible for causing the match to be abandoned are upheld; if both teams are responsible, all of the cautions are upheld.
5. Cautions issued in a match that is subsequently forfeited shall not be annulled.
6. If a player is guilty of serious unsporting behaviour as defined in Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and is sent off (direct red card), any other caution he has previously received in the same match is upheld.

18. Expulsion

1. An expulsion is the order given by the referee to someone to leave the field of play and its surroundings, including the substitutes' bench, during a match.
2. The person who has been sent off may be allowed into the stands unless he is serving a stadium ban.
3. Expulsion takes the form of a red card for players. The red card is regarded as direct if it sanctions serious unsporting behaviour as defined by Law 12 of the Laws of the Game; it is regarded as indirect if it is the result of an accumulation of two yellow cards.
4. An official who has been sent off may give instructions to the person replacing him on the substitutes' bench. He shall, however, ensure that he does not disturb the spectators or disrupt the flow of play.
5. An expulsion automatically incurs suspension from the subsequent match, even if imposed in a match that is later abandoned, annulled and/or forfeited. The Disciplinary Committee may extend the duration of the suspension.

19. Match suspension

1. A suspension from a match is a ban on taking part in a future match or competition and on attending it in the area immediately surrounding the field of play.
2. An official who is suspended in application of par. 1 is automatically banned from the dressing rooms in accordance with art. 20.
3. The suspension is imposed in terms of matches, days or months. Unless otherwise specified, it may not exceed twenty-four matches or twenty-four months.

4. If the suspension is to be served in terms of matches, only those matches actually played count towards execution of the suspension. If a match is abandoned, cancelled or forfeited (except for a violation of art. 55), a suspension is only considered to have been served if the team to which the suspended player belongs is not responsible for the facts that led to the abandonment, cancellation or forfeit of the match.
5. A match suspension is regarded as no longer pending if a match is retroactively forfeited because a player took part in a match despite being ineligible (art. 55). This also applies to the match suspension imposed on the player who took part in the match despite being ineligible.
6. If a suspension is combined with a fine, the suspension may be prolonged until the fine has been paid in full.

20. Ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' bench

A ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches deprives someone of the right to enter a team's dressing rooms and/or the area immediately surrounding the field of play, and in particular to sit on the substitutes' bench.

21. Stadium ban

A stadium ban prohibits someone from entering the confines of one or several stadiums.

22. Ban on taking part in any football-related activity

A person may be banned from taking part in any kind of football-related activity (administrative, sports or any other).

23. Transfer ban

A transfer ban prevents a club from registering any player during the period in question.

24. Playing a match without spectators

The obligation to play a match behind closed doors requires a member or a club to have a certain match played without spectators.

25. Playing a match on neutral ground

The obligation to play a match on neutral ground requires a member or a club to have a certain match played in another country or in a different region of the same country.

26. Ban on playing in a particular stadium

A ban on playing in a certain stadium deprives a member or a club of the right to have its team play in a certain stadium.

27. Annulment of the result of a match

The result of a match is annulled if the result reached on the field of play is disregarded.

28. Expulsion from a competition

Expulsion is the deprivation of the right of a member or a club to take part in the current and/or a future competition.

29. Relegation to a lower division

A club may be relegated to a lower division.

30. Deduction of points

A club may have points deducted from those already attained in the current or a future championship.

31. Forfeit

1. A team sanctioned with a forfeit is considered to have lost the match by 3-0.
2. If the goal difference at the end of the match is greater than three, the result on the pitch is upheld.

31. b) Replay of a match

A match may be replayed if it could not take place or could not be played in full for reasons other than force majeure.

Section 3. Common rules

32. Combined sanctions

Unless otherwise specified, the sanctions provided for in Chapter I (General Part) and Chapter II (Special Part) of this code may be combined.

33. Partial suspension of implementation of sanctions

1. The body that pronounces a match suspension (cf. art. 19), a ban on access to dressing rooms and/or the substitutes' bench (cf. art. 20), a ban on taking part in any football-related activity (cf. art. 22), the obligation to play a match without spectators (cf. art. 24), the obligation to play a match on neutral ground (cf. art. 25) or a ban on playing in a certain stadium (cf. art. 26) may examine whether it is possible to suspend the implementation of the sanction partially.
2. Partial suspension is permissible only if the duration of the sanction does not exceed six matches or six months and if the relevant circumstances allow it, in particular the previous record of the person sanctioned.

3. The body decides which part of the sanction may be suspended. In any case, half of the sanction is definite.
4. By suspending implementation of the sanction, the body subjects the person sanctioned to a probationary period of anything from six months to two years.
5. If the person benefiting from a suspended sanction commits another infringement during the probationary period, the suspension is automatically revoked and the sanction applied; it is added to the sanction pronounced for the new infringement.
6. Special provisions may apply in certain circumstances. In the case of anti-doping rule violations, this article is not applicable.

34. Time sanctions: calculation of time limit

The duration of a time sanction can be interrupted by rest periods during or between seasons.

35. Centralisation of sanctions

1. Records of cautions, expulsions and match suspensions are stored in the central computer system of BFA. The Disciplinary Committee secretary confirms them in writing to the member or club concerned or, in the case of final competitions, to the head of the delegation concerned.
2. This communication serves only as confirmation: sanctions (cautions, expulsions, automatic match suspensions) have an immediate effect on subsequent matches even if the letter of confirmation reaches the association, club or head of delegation concerned later.
3. To ensure that the relevant records are complete, the leagues and associations shall inform the BFA of all sanctions that have been pronounced during their own competitions and are likely to be carried over to a BFA competition (cf. art. 38 par. 2) or future competitions organised by the leagues or associations.

Section 4.

Carrying over and cancelling cautions and match suspensions

36. Carrying over cautions

1. Cautions received during one competition are not carried over to another competition.

2. They are, however, carried over from one round to the next in the same competition. The Disciplinary Committee may exceptionally depart from this rule before the start of a particular competition. This provision is subject to art. 37.

37. Cancellation of cautions

1. Upon its own initiative, the Disciplinary Committee may cancel cautions that have not resulted in an expulsion so as to restore the balance among several teams that have not played the same number of matches during the first round of a competition, or in other exceptional circumstances.
2. In any case, the committee may do this only once in any competition.
3. The Disciplinary Committee's decision is final.

38. Carrying over match suspensions

1. As a general rule, every match suspension (of players and other persons) is carried over from one round to the next in the same competition.
2. Match suspensions in relation to an expulsion pronounced on a player outside of a competition (separate match[es]) or not served during the competition for which they were intended (elimination or the last match in the competition) are carried over as follows:
 - a. BFA Domestic League: carried over to the representative team's subsequent official match;
 - b. competitions subject to an age limit: carried over to the representative team's next official match in the same age group. Where the suspension cannot be served in the same age group, it shall be carried over to the next highest age category;
 - c. BFA Champions Cup: carried over to the representative team's next official match;
 - d. confederation competitions for representative teams: carried over to the representative team's next official match in a competition organised by BFA;
 - e. competitions in which teams have been chosen in accordance with certain criteria (cultural, geographical, historical etc.): if the regulations of these competitions refer to the BFA regulations for disciplinary sanctions, the suspension is carried over to the representative team's next official match;
 - f. friendly matches: carried over to the representative team's next friendly match.

3. If a representative team is hosting a final competition and is consequently not required to participate in qualifying matches to reach the final competition of this tournament and its next official match is in that final competition, any match suspension pronounced in accordance with par. 2 of this article shall be carried over to the representative team's next friendly match.
4. In no case may match suspensions resulting from several cautions issued to a player in different matches of the same competition be carried over to another competition.
5. Par. 2 likewise applies to suspensions pronounced against persons other than players.

Section 5. Determining the sanction

39. General rule

1. The body pronouncing the sanction decides the scope and duration of it.
2. Sanctions may be limited to a geographical area or to one or more specific categories of match or competition.
3. Unless otherwise specified, the duration of a sanction is always defined.
4. The body shall take account of all relevant factors in the case and the degree of the offender's guilt when imposing the sanction.

40. Repeated infringements

1. Unless otherwise specified, the body may increase the sanction to be pronounced as deemed appropriate if an infringement has been repeated.
2. These provisions are subject to the special rules governing repeated anti-doping rule violations.

41. Concurrent infringements

1. If several fines are pronounced against someone as a result of one or more infringements, the relevant body bases the fine on the most serious offence committed and, depending on the circumstances, may increase the sanction by up to fifty per cent of the maximum sanction specified for that offence.
2. The same applies if a person incurs several time sanctions of a similar type (two or more match suspensions, two or more stadium bans etc.) as the result of one or several infringements.
3. The body that determines the fine in accordance with par. 1 is not obliged to adhere to the general upper limit of the fine (cf. art. 15 par. 2).

Section 6. Limitation period

42. Limitation period for prosecution

1. Infringements committed during a match may no longer be prosecuted after a lapse of two years. As a general rule, other infringements may not be prosecuted after a lapse of ten years.
2. Anti-doping rule violations may not be prosecuted after eight years have elapsed.
3. Prosecution for corruption (cf. art. 62) is not subject to a limitation period.

43. Commencement of the limitation period

The limitation period runs as follows:

- a) from the day on which the perpetrator committed the infringement;
- b) if the infringement is recurrent, from the day on which the most recent infringement was committed;
- c) if the infringement lasted a certain period, from the day on which it ended.

44. Interruption

The limitation period is interrupted if the Disciplinary Committee commences proceedings before it has expired.

45. Limitation period for the enforcement of sanctions

1. The limitation period for sanctions is five years.
2. The limitation period begins on the day on which the decision comes into force.

Section 1. Infringements of the Laws of the Game

46. Minor infringements

A player is cautioned if he commits any of the following offences (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and art. 17 of this code):

- a) unsporting behaviour;
- b) dissent by word or action;
- c) persistent infringement of the Laws of the Game;
- d) delaying the restart of play;
- e) failure to retreat the required distance when play is restarted with a corner kick, free kick or throw-in;
- f) entering or re-entering the field of play without the referee's permission;
- g) deliberately leaving the field of play without the referee's permission.

47. Serious infringements

A player is sent off if he commits any of the following offences (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and art. 18 of this code):

- h) serious foul play;
- i) violent conduct;
- j) spitting at an opponent or any other person;
- k) denying the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by deliberately handling the ball (this does not apply to a goalkeeper within his own penalty area);
- l) denying an obvious goal-scoring opportunity to an opponent moving towards the player's goal by an offence punishable by a free kick or a penalty kick;
- m) using offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or gestures;
- n) receiving a second caution in the same match (art. 17 par. 2).

Section 2. Disorderliness at matches and competitions

48. Misconduct against opponents or persons other than match officials

1. Including the automatic suspension incurred in accordance with art. 18 par. 4, any recipient of a direct red card shall be suspended as follows:
 - a) one match for denying the opposing team a clear goal-scoring opportunity (particularly by deliberately handling the ball);
 - b) at least one match for serious foul play (particularly in the case of excessive or brute force);

First Title. Substantive Law - Chapter II Special Part

- c) at least one match for unsporting conduct towards an opponent or a person other than a match official (subject to art. 53, 54 and 57-60);
 - d) at least two matches for assaulting (elbowing, punching, kicking etc.) an opponent or a person other than a match official;
 - e) at least six matches for spitting at an opponent or a person other than a match official.
2. A fine may also be imposed in all cases.
 3. The right is reserved to punish an infringement in accordance with art. 77 a).

49. Misconduct against match officials

1. Including the automatic suspension incurred in accordance with art. 18 par. 4, the overall suspension imposed on any person receiving a direct red card shall be for:
 - a) at least four matches for unsporting conduct towards a match official (subject to art. 53, 54 and 57-60);
 - b) for a minor or slight touching of the referee or the referee's uniform or personal property, at least 3 months from the time of the assault;
 - c) at least six months for assaulting (elbowing, punching, kicking etc.) a match official;
 - d) at least 12 months for spitting at a match official;
 - e) for an assault when serious injuries are inflicted, at least 2 years.
3. A fine may also be imposed in all cases.
4. The right is reserved to punish an infringement in accordance with art. 77 a).

50. Brawl

1. Involvement in a brawl is sanctioned with a suspension for at least six matches.

Section 5. Special procedures

Subsection 1. Provisional measures

128. General rule

1. If an infringement appears to have been committed and a decision on the main issue cannot be taken early enough, the chairman of the judicial body may, in emergencies, provisionally pronounce, alter or revoke a sanction.
2. In similar circumstances, he may take other provisional measures at his discretion, especially to ensure compliance with a sanction already in force.
3. He will take action upon request or ex officio.

129. Procedure

1. The chairman shall make his decision based on the evidence available at the time.
2. He is not obliged to hear the parties.

130. Decision

1. The chairman delivers his decision immediately.
2. That decision is implemented immediately.

131. Duration

1. Provisional measures may not be valid for longer than 30 days.
2. This period may be extended only once by 20 days.

3. If a sanction has been pronounced provisionally, the duration shall be offset against any final sanction.

132. Appeal

1. An appeal against a decision regarding provisional measures may be lodged with the chairman of the Executive Board.
2. The time limit for lodging the appeal is two days commencing from the communication of the decision.
3. The petition of appeal shall be sent direct to the BFA by telefax within the same time limit.
4. The appeal shall not have a suspensive effect.

133. Approval of appeal

The appeal will be admitted if the facts stated in the contested decision are inaccurate or if the law has been violated.

Subsection 2. Deliberations and decision-taking without meeting

134. Deliberations and decision-taking without meeting

1. If the circumstances so require, the secretariat may arrange the deliberations and decision-taking to be conducted via telephone conference, videoconference or any other similar method.
2. Art. 111 par. 2 is, in this case, not applicable.
3. The secretary takes minutes as if it were an ordinary meeting.

Subsection 3. Extending sanctions to have worldwide effect

135. Request

1. If the infringement is serious, in particular but not limited to doping (cf. art. 63), unlawfully influencing match results (cf. art. 69), misconduct against match officials (cf. art. 49), forgery and falsification (cf. art. 61) or violation of the rules governing age limits (cf. art. 68 a), the clubs, leagues, and other organising sports bodies shall request the BFA to extend the sanctions they have imposed so as to have worldwide effect.
2. Any doping-related legally binding sanction imposed by another international sports association, national anti-doping organisation or any other state body that complies with fundamental legal principles shall automatically be adopted by the BFA and, provided that the requirements described hereunder are met, may in principle be extended by the BFA to have worldwide effect.

Second Title. Organisation and Procedure - Chapter II Procedure

3. The request shall be submitted in writing and enclose a certified copy matching the decision. It shall show the name and address of the person who has been sanctioned and that of the club concerned.
4. If the judicial bodies of the BFA discover that clubs and other sports organisations have not requested a decision to be extended to have worldwide effect, these bodies may themselves pass a decision.

136. Conditions

The request for sanctions to be extended will be approved if:

- a) the person sanctioned has been cited properly;
- b) he has had the opportunity to state his case (with the exception of provisional measures);
- c) the decision has been communicated properly;
- d) the decision complies with the regulations of the BFA;
- e) extending the sanction does not conflict with public order and accepted standards of behaviour.

137. Procedure

1. The chairman makes his decision, in principle, without negotiations or hearing any of the parties, using only the file.
2. He may exceptionally decide to summon the parties concerned.

138. Decision

1. The chairman is restricted to ascertaining that the conditions of art. 136 have been fulfilled. He may not review the substance of the decision.
2. He either grants or refuses to grant the request to have the sanction extended.

139. Effect

1. A sanction imposed by a club has the same effect in each club of the BFA as if the sanction had been imposed by any one of them.
2. If a decision that is not yet final in a legal sense is extended to have worldwide effect, any decision regarding extension shall always be based on the content of the club's current decision.

140. Appeal

1. The provisions of art. 119ff. shall apply, subject to par. 2 of this article, to any appeal lodged against a decision passed in accordance with art. 139.
2. Any grounds for complaint may only refer to the terms set out in art. 136 and 137. It is inadmissible to question the substance of the initial decision.

Subsection 4. Review

141. Review

1. A review may be requested after a legally binding decision has been passed if a party discovers facts or proof that would have resulted in a more favourable decision and that, even with due diligence, could not have been produced sooner.
2. A request for review shall be made within ten days of discovering the reasons for review.
3. The limitation period for submitting a request for review is one year after the enforcement of the decision.
